

USDF RMDS ADULT AMATEUR CLINIC WITH GEORGE WILLIAMS

APRIL 15-16 (FRIDAY/SATURDAY), 2022

Sponsored in part by United States Dressage Federation and Rocky Mountain Dressage Society, we are proud to offer a 2-day clinic with George Williams for Adult Amateurs at Hobby Horse Farms in Longmont, Colorado.

Hobby Horse Farms | 5220 County Road 20 | Longmont, CO 80504

George Williams has built a distinguished career around dressage as a rider, coach, clinician, and volunteer. His dressage education began in Germany with Egon von Neindorff and continued with his mentor, Karl Mikolka at the Tempel Lipizzans where he rode and trained for 20 years, serving as program director for 13 years. He emerged as a competitor with the U.S. Equestrian Team, riding the Westphalian mare Rocher to success, including team bronze at CHIO Aachen in 2005, a USDF Grand Prix, fifth place at the 2003 World Cup in Sweden, and Grand Prix Freestyle Horse of the Year in 2003. Since retiring from competition, George has trained many young riders all the way to prestigious finals and has served on the boards of the U.S. Equestrian Dressage Committee, the US Equestrian Board of Directors, and the United States Dressage Federation, where he served as president for nine years. Now, George travels to teach clinics and is the US Equestrian Dressage Youth Coach and has returned as the USDF President. George is based in Wellington, Florida during the winter and spends his summers and fall outside Charlottesville, Virginia.

$330 for both days | Stabling available at $45 per night.

OPENING DATE: January 1, 2022 | CLOSING DATE: March 15, 2022
